President's Message

Dear Members.

The garden tour at Joyce's home was indeed a special treat. Joyce and John have a truly unique and beautiful setting, and it is evident that they spend a lot of time and effort keeping it special.

It is hard to believe that all the shows are over until the fall! While difficult to accept, it is also a great relief and truly a period to dedicate to our own collections. I am going to recommend, in addition to a speaker occasionally, that we also have lots of discussions about the control of pests, keeping the plants cool, and water frequency. We have a lot of accomplished growers in our own club and we need to be sharing our information and capabilities with those who have not been growing for as long a time as some of us.

Hope to see all of you at future meetings and look forward to an active summer with great attendance at our meetings.

Jim

MISSION POSSIBLE:

Your mission this year is to find a new venue for our annual show, so we will have options. Please get as much information as possible and bring it to a meeting. This message will not self-destruct, but will be repeated every month until your mission is accomplished.

Ramble

A good time was had by all who attended the ramble at Joyce's house. Members went home with lots of great ideas about how to display their orchids. Thank you to Joyce and John for opening their garden to us.

AOS CORNER

AOS is on the move. At the members meeting held in April, it was announced that all members with email addresses would receive an invitation in early May to explore the AOS web site that has been under development which also included the new Orchids Plus program and to provide feedback. During that time, both web sites will run simultaneously. When the new site is made active you'll notice a new, fresh look to the AOS website. Its more than a cosmetic change. Along with upgrades and added material, the new Orchids Plus program will be available. If you are a current subscriber to AQ+, you will need to re-register in the new program. AOS also anticipates a 'social network' component to the website and it is currently under development.

In addition, at the Members meeting, the Board of Trustees announced that a committee has been formed to assess the future strategic partners for the AOS. Possible strategic partners are Huntington Gardens in California, Fairchild Botanical Garden in Florida and Longwood Gardens in Pennsylvania. The current AOS property in Delray is under contract for purchase and the potential purchaser is going through some local zoning change requirements. It is anticipated that sale will be completed in the last quarter of 2011.

The traditional Affiliated Societies breakfast was well attended. We had a conversation of what the AOS means to the affiliated societies and what can the societies do to further promote the AOS. The AOS reps present at the meeting asked for more communication between the AOS and the affiliated societies. The Affiliated Societies Committee members will be reaching out to the societies throughout the upcoming months with the goal of getting all the contact information corrected and updated.

Does your society have any special members that they would like to recognize? If so, AOS can provide Certificates of Appreciation for your society to use in recognizing them for their outstanding achievements or contributions. If you have a need for these certificates or if you have any questions or concerns regarding the AOS in general, please feel to contact me through affiliarted_societies@aos.org.
